About Us

Raman
Graphics Designer

I am Ramandeep Atlia from Punjab, India. I am studying as a Designer in course Web and Mobile Design and Development in Langara College.

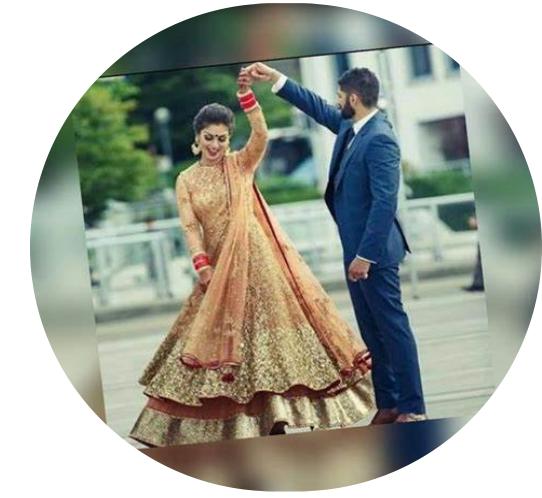

As a designer, I am fluent in photoshop, illustrator, HTML/CSS and iMovie. I like designing logos, creating videos and making website templates. I have worked on various projects in these areas during my college term.

I have experience working as a teacher which I still do in my part time. I am a computer science engineering graduate.

My hobbies are listening to music, painting and cooking.
